

What's New at Our Library?

“Respect” by Aunty Fay Muir, Sue Lawson and Lisa Kennedy

Our Way is old.
Older than the red earth.
Older than flickering stars.
Our way is respect.

A tender, thoughtful story reminding us to respect others and respect ourselves. Part of the Our Place series which welcomes children to culture.

“Sing Me the Summer” by Jane Godwin and Alison Lester

Splash into summer with this glorious love letter to the seasons. Combining Jane Godwin’s sparkling text and Alison Lester’s whimsical watercolours, Sing Me the Summer celebrates those precious everyday moments that stay with us forever.

“Whitney and Britney Chicken Detectives” by Lucinda Gifford

Whitney and Britney are marvellous chooks. Feathery singers, with stunning good looks.

Dora's glamorous chooks are hot on the trail of a mystery. But will long-lost Gloria ever be found? The Diva detectives are determined to crack the case!

“The Usborne Book of Night Time” by Laura Cowan and Bonnie Pang

At night when you are fast asleep, another world awakens... Explore the world of night in this gorgeous picture book and discover nocturnal animals in the countryside, cities that never sleep and the secrets of the night sky. With lots to look at and talk about on every page and links to specially selected websites with more to discover.

“Forces at the Amusement Park” by Tammy Enz

It's time for fun at the amusement park. But did you know science is at work behind the scenes? Feel the thrill as the roller coaster plunges down the big hill. That's gravitational force at work. Sticking to the graviton's walls like glue. That's the result of centripetal force. Find out more about the forces behind the fun.

“Bonkers About Beetles” by Owen Davey

Did you know that there are roughly 400,000 different species of beetles? These incredible creatures make up about 25% of all animals on our planet! Beetles are superbly adapted to life in various climates across the world, wherever trees and flowers are found.

From the mighty Goliath beetle to the beautiful iridescent scarab beetle, this captivating and stunningly illustrated guide will teach you everything you need to know about these fascinating insects.

“The Forever Horse” by Stacy Gregg

Maisie has always loved horses. She is also a talented artist. When the opportunity arises for her to study in Paris, her two worlds collide. There, in the heart of the city, Maisie finds the childhood diary of famous horse artist, Rose Bonifait, and meets the beautiful black stallion, Claude.

As the two girls' stories emerge, tragedies unfold - both past and present - and Maisie realises that she can't begin to imagine life without her forever horse...

“The 143-Storey Treehouse” by Andy Griffiths and Terry Denton

Andy and Terry's treehouse now has 13 new storeys, including a word-o-matic (it knows every word in the whole world!); a recycling depot; a wrecking ball; a complaining room; a spooky graveyard (where it's always midnight, even in the middle of the day); a toffee apple orchard guarded by a kind scarecrow; and a camping ground where you can have a nice, relaxing camping holiday-unless you get caught by hobyahs, put in a bag and poked with a stick, that is ...

Well, what are you waiting for? Come on up!

“Pony” by R. J. Palacio

When Silas Bird wakes in the dead of night, he watches powerlessly as three strangers take his father away. Silas is left shaken, scared and alone, except for the presence of his companion, Mittenwool . . . who happens to be a ghost. But then a mysterious pony shows up at his door, and Silas knows what he has to do. So begins a perilous journey to find his father - a journey that will connect him with his past, his future, and the unknowable world around him.
