Youth Roadmap: Young People Shaping Ulladulla's Future

Over the past few weeks, students from Ulladulla High have taken part in the first two sessions of the Youth Roadmap — a Dunn Lewis initiative designed to amplify young voices and co-design a community that reflects their needs, ideas, and passions. Through fun, interactive workshops, students have explored what makes them feel connected — or disconnected — from their community. Many shared a desire for safe spaces to hang out, more youth-friendly activities, and stronger connections with local support networks. Already, some of the core ideas emerging include better transport options, improved sports fields and footpaths, and more recreational activities that help young people feel engaged and included. These workshops are just the beginning. Next, a group of students that want to make change, will take part in a two-day workshop to develop their ideas into actionable, pitch-ready projects. These projects will then be presented to local community leaders, funding bodies, and support organisations that are ready to support young people in bringing their ideas to life. We're incredibly proud of the students' leadership, creativity, and commitment to shaping the future of Ulladulla. This project has been made possible by the Dunn Lewis Foundation with support from FRRR and Community Connect South Shoalhaven.

Shoalhaven Food Network Industry Excursion

Last week a group of students gained an insight into the many varied Careers in the Hospitality Industry. They visited Gwylo (Matt, Hayley and Declan), Bannisters (Rupert and team), then on to Cupitts for lunch. Students met John and Hannah from Lagom Bakery, Kitty from Milkhaus, Hayley from Gwylo, Luke from Merry Street and Tom from Cupitts and heard of their journeys. It was great to have UHS SBAT student Brodie Tebbutt, and Alumni Sam Goodworth and Ebony Wellman talk to us about their successes, all now working in the Hospitality Industry! Thanks to our fabulous local restaurateurs, as well as Paul and Neil from RIEP (Regional Industry Education Partnerships) and Di from Shoalhaven Food Network for this opportunity! Interested students can continue their learning by attending the Gaining Through Training TAFE Day this week, then have the opportunity to 'work' at the many local events as part of the Shoalhaven Food Network Autumn Celebration of Food.

Questacon Visits UHS

This year Questacon decided to support the communities of affected bushfire areas to relocate their planned workshop trials to schools in the South Coast region. The UHS Science faculty took up this opportunity and for three days last week the whole of Year 7 took part in a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) challenge. The workshops are aimed to build confidence in an engaging, hands-on learning environment. Student teams were restricted to the amount of material and given 30 minutes to build a roller-coaster upon a provided platform. There were some very innovative designs as students engaged their imaginations as a team. Thank you to the Questacon team, Shreeja and Jade for providing this opportunity.

"I really enjoyed being able to create something with a lack of materials because it forces you to use your imagination. It was a great experience all round. Thank you for visiting our school."
Chloe.

UHS Students Shine at OzClo

On March 5 Charlotte Ainsley, Coralie Smith, Joe Nelson and Leila Pepperell put their skills to the test as they undertook round one of the Australian Computational and Linguistics Olympiad (OzClo). This contest asks students to solve problems using real languages – and not ones they were familiar with! It was a real challenge, but the team met it head on, and we are pleased to share their wonderful result, having received silver certificates for placing in the top 25% of contestants! Congratulations Joe, Leila, Charlotte and Coralie. Pictured: Charlotte Ainsley, Coralie Smith and Joe Nelson with their Silver certificates. Absent: Leila Pepperell.
