Ulladulla High Students Get a First Look at Albatross Base

On Thursday 26 June, 14 students from Ulladulla High School joined peers from Bomaderry High School for the NAPS First Look program at HMAS Albatross in Nowra. The visit offered students a rare and engaging insight into the operations and career opportunities within the Royal Australian Navy.

The day began with a briefing and tour of 723 Squadron and HATS (Helicopter Aircrew Training System), where students learnt about the advanced training methods used for Navy aircrew. This was followed by a visit to the SSWC (School of Ship Survivability and Safety), highlighting the importance of safety, resilience, and preparedness at sea. Students then toured 816, 725, and 808 Squadrons, gaining a close-up look at the aircraft and technical expertise required to support Navy operations. One interesting novelty during the day was that phones and smartwatches were not allowed in some areas, giving students a chance to disconnect and fully engage with the experience. A highlight of the day was lunch at the Junior Sailors Mess, where students were treated to a delicious Mexican-themed menu — a definite crowd-pleaser! After lunch, students had fun in the mess recreational room, enjoying some friendly competition playing pool, darts, and air hockey. The visit concluded with a tour of 822X Squadron, providing insight into the Navy's cutting-edge use of unmanned aerial systems and the evolving role of technology in defence.

The NAPS First Look program was an informative and inspiring experience, showcasing the many exciting pathways within the Australian Defence Force.

If any Year 10 students missed this visit and are interested in attending the next tour, 'Next Step' on Thursday 14 August in Term 3, please see Ms Brooks in the Careers office or email her at julia.brooks@det.nsw.edu.au

The MUSTER Yard: Real Talk

On Wednesday June 18, around 80 boys from Ulladulla High stepped into The MUSTER Yard - a two-hour event all about honest conversation, real stories, and what it actually means to grow into a good man. Things kicked off with a powerful Acknowledgment of Country from Miribi Bunbal leaders Chase Stewart and Riley Gleeson Morris. Then we heard from Natalee Johnston - a retired Navy helicopter pilot, business owner and local councillor. Natalee shared what it was like working in a male-dominated world and why respect for women starts with the choices we make every day. The core of the event was a Q&A-style panel session featuring six incredible guests: Simon Kinch, Chris Coffey, Adam Gowen, Brad Parsons, Matthew Williams and Darren Higgins. Drawing from their unique life stories, the panel covered what it means to move from boyhood to manhood, the power of male and female role models, calling out bad behaviour and what advice they'd give their 14-year-old selves if they had the chance. Session two dove even deeper. The group explored topics like real strength, the myth of "hardening up", emotional wellbeing, accountability, respect for women, and the difference between taking smart risks and dumb ones. The day wrapped up with a feed in the Aboriginal Garden with Uncle John Field. The MUSTER Yard was more than just a school event - it was a reminder that becoming a man is not about being tough; it's about being real. A big thanks to everyone who showed up and opened up.

Ration Challenge

From June 30 to July 2, Ulladulla High School students took part in the Ration Challenge — an initiative that gives participants a small glimpse into the daily realities faced by refugees and people living in poverty. Led by a passionate Year 8 SRC member Clarrie O'Loughlin, the challenge has inspired one teacher and seven students — most of whom are in Year 11 — to step up in support. It's a proud moment for our school community, as our senior students rally behind a younger peer's idea, showing unity, leadership, and compassion. At UHS, our SRC and wider student body are deeply committed to social justice. Living on the beautiful South Coast, our students are mindful of their privilege and are driven to make a difference. By completing the Ration Challenge, they are not only standing in solidarity with those facing hardship but are also raising vital funds and awareness to support real change. Well done to all involved — we're proud of your commitment to making a difference!

SBAT Success for Ulladulla High Students

Ulladulla High School is proud to celebrate our Year 11 student, Finn Louth, who has officially signed up to his School-Based Apprenticeship and Traineeship (SBAT) program on Friday 20th June. Finn Louth has commenced his SBAT at Cupitt's Estate, where he is gaining valuable hands-on experience in the hospitality industry while working toward a Certificate II in Hospitality. This opportunity allows Finn to build practical skills in a real-world setting while still completing his HSC. This exciting opportunity is a fantastic example of how Ulladulla High School supports students in exploring career pathways while remaining engaged in their senior studies. Rugby 7s: Fast. Fierce. Unforgiving

At some point, your lungs burn like fire and your legs forget what they were made for.

On Tuesday, our Under 16s boys and girls' squads - along with the U14s boys - took part in an ACT Brumbies coaching clinic. A huge thanks to clinic facilitator Ronnie Kamila and Brumbies Academy rising star Max Furniss, for putting the teams through their paces with sessions that focused on high-intensity, rugby-specific drills to prepare them for the NSW Interschool Rugby 7s comps early next term.

Last term Miribi Bunbal performed an amazing set of music at the Ulladulla Children's Centre. Chase Stewart and AEO Michelle also taught the children native animal dances. Everyone had a lot of fun joining in or watching. Michelle read a book and offered colouring ins and activities that the boys helped the children with. It was lovely to see everyone enjoy the time spent together.

Special mentions go to Fynn McMullen, who fired up the team with his energy, loud support, and powerful hitting. Lachlan Overall was outstanding as an outside hitter, scoring consistently and keeping the pressure on the opposition. Christian Norman once again impressed with his rock-solid defence and sharp passing throughout the day. Coached by Mr Duncan, this talented team will now head to Sydney early this term to compete against the top 20 schools in the state. We wish them all the best and can't wait to hear about their success. Well done, boys!
