Dear Parents and Friends

Student Representative Council (SRC)

Our 2025 SRC members participated in a training day on Monday 3 March. The day enabled students to gain a better understanding of how the Oakville Public School SRC will operate during the year and provided the opportunity to further develop their leadership skills. Well done on your enthusiastic participation, boys and girls! Thank you, Mrs Hand for organising a great day.

The first sporting event for the year - the Oakville Public School Swimming Carnival, was held at Windsor Pool on Thursday 27 February. To all our swimmers, congratulations for the tremendous effort you put into the races and your fantastic behaviour during the day. Thank you to the Oakville community for attending the event to support our students. Well done to Mr Smith for organising a wonderful carnival.

Good luck to the students who will represent Oakville Public School at the Ridges Swimming Carnival on Tuesday 11 March.

School Uniform

Thank you to the Oakville community for your continued support ensuring that your child/children are in correct school uniform every school day, especially all black shoes. Oakville Public School enjoys a wonderful reputation in the local area and the wearing of correct school uniform contributes significantly to this. It is great to look over the playground each morning and see so many of our students in correct school uniform. Well done!
